

Ms. Elizabeth Mae Bradley Cummings

March 24, 1949 - June 3, 2025

Elizabeth Mae Bradley Cummings, affectionately known as "Nannie," departed this life Tuesday, June 3, 2025, at Johnson City Medical Center. She was born on March 24, 1949, to Mr. George and Virginia Bradley.

Elizabeth graduated from Langston High School. She then worked for Texas Instruments and Siemens Marriott Courtyard in Nashville, Tennessee. She was a member of New Zion Faith Center and Mt. Olive Baptist Church. She enjoyed studying her Bible, working on crossword puzzles, and cooking. Elizabeth was quiet, but those close to her knew how much she loved to laugh and dance. She had a gentle spirit but was strong-willed. She often remarked, "I am strong, and I'm proud of my people," "Joe Gone," and "My cup runneth over."

She was preceded in death by her parents, George and Virginia Bradley; mother, Leona Opal Jones Simmons; siblings, Jerry Bradley, Terry Bradley, Wayne Davis, and Charles Davis; and her great-grandson, Memphis Manuel Cummings.

To cherish her memory, Elizabeth leaves behind her husband, Charlie Cummings; children, Pamela D. Cummings and Charles Cummings Jr.; grandchildren, Manuel Cummings, Lakeia Story, Monique Brown, Calen Cummings, Raina I., Amyna Cummings, and Isaac Story, and his wife

Caroline; great-grandchildren, Keygan A., Avah, Ka'shaun Brown, Zenari D., Draya Cummings, Alexis Cummings, Nehemiah Story, Heaven Story, and soon to be born, Faith; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and beloved friends.
