“ From daycare to our 40s she never changed. She was always such a loving person, she wore a smile no matter what was going on and lifter others up. I will miss her dearly. She sent me a gift a few years ago that I wont share what it was but showed how true she was to not only her self but others. She knew I was going through a lot and that gift will always be one thing ill have to remember and laugh about. She is home now and not in pain

“ You will be greatly missed dear Kimberlaaaaay!! This was how I always greeted you & we would just share so many LOLs. You were a true champion of mite, dignity, drive, purpose & never let anything hold you back.

Through all your anguish with your health, the challenges of parenting, the thousands upon thousands of miles you put on yourself to ensure your career flourished & so many other attributes that go unheralded, puts you on a pedestal of what one can view as an amazing journey of life.

You conquered it all, did everything others couldn't or wouldn't. You stood your ground, raised your head high with pride & showed your children that anything is attainable with energy, effort & enthusiasm. You never gave up on anything.

Now you get to rest. Your earthly journey may have ceased, but your heavenly marathon now prevails. You now become the angel of guiding light for your loved ones. And your spirit is imbedded in every soul you touched.

We will all miss you dearly. Thanks for the many years of sharing your selfless personality. Your smile, your laughter, your joyful ambition will forever be remembered.

Prayers to Zion & Harper as they navigate their way through this loss. But they know you're right there with them through every step of their lives. You built for them a foundation that they will continue to build on.

God please watch over Kim's family & friends during this tough time as we know she's seated beside you now & basking in the joys of heaven without pain, anguish or worry.

Will miss you dear friend!!

Yours truly,

Franklin
