“ Lisa 's faith was strong and sound. May she rest in Gods loving arms. May the love of Christ that she shared with all she encountered bring comfort and peace all who know and loved her.

“ I worked with Melissa (Lisa) at Tulsa. She was a good person. She was not afraid to share her faith with anyone I looked up to her on that one. I will miss her. She cared about people very much.

“ My heart is broken as you are no longer with us! It is amazing to me that after knowing each other for 51 years, we were able to have conversation as if it was yesterday we talked. We started our 6th grade together. I am so grateful for the time we got to spend on 7/23. The look on your face when I pulled my mask down so you could see my face was priceless. Our conversation was awesome and I will cherish the time we had. My only regret is we didn't have more time in the last week. Prayers for the family. Love and hugs to each of you.
