

Mary K Reeves

March 11, 1930 - May 5, 2021

Mary Kate “Momma Kate” Reeves, a servant of Jesus Christ, departed this life on May 5, 2021, at the age of 91 at her home. She was born in Limestone, TN to the late Bud and Roxie Gillespie.

Mary Kate is also preceded in death by her first husband Joseph D. Miller, second husband George “GW” Reeves, two sons Joseph F., and Charles A. Miller and one daughter, Joyce Miller, two brothers, and one sister.

Momma Kate has been a staple and a pillar in the lives of many. She always had a heart of service. She attended Grace Temple Eternal life Center and worked on many committees as long as her health permitted. She was loving, kind and a humble woman of God. She was a housekeeper and a foster grandparent for many years. She taught her family and loved ones how to garden, to preserve food and to cook ensuring that they would be self-reliant. She will be greatly missed by her church, family, and friends.

Amanda(Randy)Grooms; 36 great-grandchildren; 17 great-great-grandchildren; four sisters and two brothers; Special adopted daughter Sylvia Rollins, and adopted grandchildren Robby Hale and Rasha Turner.

The family will have a private service on Monday May 10, 2021 in Johnson City.

Mary Kate's grandsons will be the pallbearers and great grandsons will be the honorary pallbearers.

“ Miss Mary was the sweetest thing. I knew her for about 18 years and we were neighbors. I loved Sunday afternoons when the ladies would sit on the front porch and talk and laugh. She had the best laugh , a huge heart ❤️ and grew the prettiest flowers. She'll forever be remembered by my family. Sending love and comfort to everyone who loved her.
