“ Momma Sue, there are no words, only prayers for my extended family of over forty plus years, since I was fourteen, you have welcomed me into your family. It has been an honor and a privilege to know you here, and I can't wait to see what JESUS has in store for us when we get there. Not once in my life have I ever heard you raise your voice. I only know of you lifting up prayers over everyone you loved. And for me, the one dish you would make that I loved so well, was potatoes, with peas and hamburger, that yummy casserole dish. I have yet to taste one any better than yours. You and Pap always made me feel like the family we became. And how Pap would always tease me in some way. You both have been excellent parents, Grandparents and Great Grandparents, Aunt, and Uncle, Sister and Brother. Precious gifts you have been. WE love you Momma Sue, you are the best second Momma ever. I love you and I am looking forward to seeing your beautiful face again, in the presence of OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, FOREVER!!! OH GLORIOUS DAY!!!! WE LOVE YOU, SEE YOU WHEN WE GET THERE 🙌👼❤️
