“ Odessa was my Godmother. She was one of the best friends my Mother ever had (a friendship of some 45 years). When they were young adults (20 somethings) they became roommates & their closeness caused my family to become like extended family to Odessa and she became my "mom" too. As they say "back in the day" she was foine! So stylish, so cool, so together, so ladylike. Photogenic and flawless, outfits, shoes, hair, makeup on point. A diva for sure but sweet humble warm & down to earth all day. All my memories are of her infectious laugh, always present smile, patience & kindness. I will miss this amazing lady soooo much. Time circumstances & distance got between us & I feel like I didn't get "enough of her but now she is at peace and present with her lord. God is reunited with the apple of his eye and for the time I had her I feel blessed and at peace too. I pray for the Johnson family at this time that your wounds be bound anointed and healed by Jesus blood to keep you strong and in faith to carry on in love. -Rene Seaberry
