

Mr. Richard D. Salters

August 24, 1946 - June 23, 2025

Richard David Salters, 78, was born August 24, 1946, to the late Hattie Salters and Nicholas Green in South Carolina. Richard entered into his eternal rest on June 23, 2025, at Lake Bridge Nursing Home.

Richard worked hard for many years at Leon Fernbach as a foreman. He also worked at Asbury as a dishwasher and completed odd jobs for many people in the community. Richard was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church. Richard enjoyed fishing and watching wrestling in his free time. He had a hilarious personality; he always wanted to laugh and joke with you. He always wanted to share stories about life with those around him.

Richard is preceded in death by his brothers, Robert "Sunny" Salters, James "Billy" Salters, Walter Salters, Louis Salters, and Earl T. Salters; sister, Shirley Salters; and granddaughter, Prynness Hunter.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Shelly Hunter; grandchildren, Chavez and Shaneah; great-grandchildren, Jaevion, Legendary, Kind, Zakari, & Azariah; great-niece, Tonya Salters; and a very special friend, Rosie Love.

“ Richard was a good man and a very hard worker; I knew him from his Leon-Ferenbach days! It was dependable and always showed up for work and did the best job he could. In the early 2000s, we even went out on many a weekend. He was a jokester, always cutting up, and regaling you with stories about himself that kept you glued to your seat! He will truly be missed. . .
