“ I'm sorry to say that I did not know Mrs. Murphy. But knowing that so often children are a true reflection of their parents, and privileged as I was to have been a schoolmate of Velma's, I can imagine what a great lady Mrs. Murphy was.

While Mr. Murphy, Velma, and the rest of their family have joy knowing that Mrs. Murphy is now in a better place, I pray that our Lord may wrap His arms around them and give them peace.

“ Shirley was the matriarch and fashion diva of our Silver Sneakers class. I remember one of the instructors complimenting her on a jacket that she was wearing in class that day. Shirley replied "you can have it when I pass". I can't remember which instructor it was because we were all jealous of her wardrobe. Whoever inherits her wardrobe will be greatly blessed, but no more than anyone who had crossed paths with this very special lady. She left foot prints on our hearts. We all admired her "spunk" in keeping up with us "senior youngsters" in the 10 a.m. exercise class @ Life Style Gym. May the Peace of Jesus and Comfort of the Holy Spirit sustain all those many friends and family members during this trial until we joint her in her Eternal Home. God Bless, Charlene Elliott

“ I want to thank Mrs. Murphy for entertaining my brother Chris, when he decided to wander out the back door of 811 N Boone St and make the trek down the alley to W Chilhowie to play with Leland's Hot Wheels set. Secondly, thank you Mrs. Murphy for allowing us boys to play football in your backyard. Last, thank you for being one of the many mothers in the village of JC that helped raise me, all the while raising and teaching your own children. We are going to miss you. James Knaff

“ Mrs. Murphy (and I always called her Mrs. Murphy) expected the best from those she loved as she demanded it from herself. I have known her from the time I moved to Johnson City as a teenager and have been fortunate to have had her in my life ever since. I am grateful to have called her, as well as, all the members of the Murphy family my friends. While we will miss her, those who she influenced will forever carry her positive messages of strength, high expectations and love. Rest in Peace, Mrs. Murphy, and thank you for being my friend.

God has wrapped you in his arms, holding you tight, giving you peace only he can give. Your prayers touched many and God heard each and every one so rest in your faith now and be comforted by your family and friends.*

I did not have the pleasure of meeting Ms. Shirley but feel that I knew her through my conversations with her daughter my colleague Velma, what resonated with me was the love Mrs Murphy had for her family and the faith she had in her God. Her elegance and her sense of humor as well as her commitment to her community. My condolences to the Murphy family. May she rest in sweet peace.

Mrs. Murphy was certainly an example of a real lady, indeed. She and Carroll raised their children in the perfect way and I know they will understand that she is in God's hands now and not suffering in any way. The loss of Mrs. Murphy will be felt by all that knew her and the Murphy family. Let's keep her family in our thoughts and never forget this beautiful person.
