

Mr. William A. Parker Jr.

October 28, 1941 - November 19, 2024

William A. Parker, Jr. departed this life on Tuesday, November 19, 2024, in Johnson City, Tennessee. William was born on October 28, 1941, to William Parker, Sr. and Charlotte Dolberry Parker in Oak City, North Carolina.

William graduated from Oak City High School and worked for GM Automotives as a supervisor. He attended Thankful Baptist Church; he served on the usher board, male choir, and hospitality/kitchen committee.

William enjoyed cooking and was always the life of the party. With his friendly personality, he never met a stranger.

In addition to his parents, William was preceded in death by his sister, Gertrude Fobb, and brother-in-law, Peter Fobb.

To cherish his memory, William leaves behind his wife, Dorothy L. Parker; children, Charlene Parker, Eric Parker, Ronzel (Michelle) Parker, and Jerome (LeQuita); grandchildren, Allahjuan, Cherie, Quanasia (Mookie), Diamond, Dallas, Ian, and Rick; great-grandchildren, D'Nasia, Genesis, Gemaree, Quadir, Gevaunte, Niko, Ivory, Amir, and Malik; brother, Gary Parker; special friend, Johnny Wade; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
